

The virtual court is the specification, and the camera is a measured one

Nothing in the scene is chosen for looks: court and net follow BWF dimensions, and the camera is solved from the broadcast it reconstructs.

(a) plan

(b) elevation, looking along the net

